RULES AND REGULATIONS.

I.—GENERAL RULES.

1. The Fair will commence on Wednesday, the twenty-sixth and will close on Saturday the twenty-ninth of September.
2. The gates will be open at eight o'clock, A. M., of each day, and at that time every officer will be required to be at his post.
3. The Board of Directors will meet at the office of the Secretary on the Fair Grounds, on Wednesday morning at nine o'clock, to transact any business that may come before it. The time of other meetings may then be determined upon.
4. Officers of the Society, while on the grounds will be designated as follows: The President by a red sash, the Vice President by a red ribbon, the Secretary and Treasurer by white sashes, the General Superintendent by a blue sash, and the gate keepers and members of the police force by a blue ribbon.
5. No animal will be allowed to run at large in the grounds.
6. The Board of Directors will be on the grounds during the whole time of the Fair, and will be ready to do business at all reasonable hours of the day. They will appoint all officers, committees, etc., and will determine any questions affecting exhibitors or employees.
7. The General Superintendent will be charged with the active duties of providing for the wants of the exhibition; of receiving, arranging and keeping in order everything connected therewith, and of maintaining good order within the enclosure.
8. A strong and efficient police force under the control of the General Superintendent, will be on the Fair Grounds day and night.

II.—ENTRIES.

1. Wednesday, the first day of the Fair, will be devoted to receiving, entering and arranging articles for exhibition, and no article will be allowed to be entered after that day, unless in case where unavoidable accident has caused delay, and then not later than nine o'clock, on Thursday.

2. Entries may be made with the Secretary, at his office at the Terre Haute Nurseries, one mile south-east of the city, on any day of the week proceeding that of the Fair, by personal application or by letter. Post Office box 578. On Tuesday, before the Fair commences, the General Superintendent or some other officer of the Society, will be on the grounds to assign to persons, places for their stock, who may wish to secure them on that day.

3. Ten per cent., will be charged all competitors on premiums of five dollars and over except those who have subscribed and paid in five dollars, will be entitled to a card that will admit him and his family under twenty-one years of age, to the Fair, and entitle them to make all entries free, except the one hundred dollars trotting premium open to all, and all sweepstakes in the live stock department on which all competitors will be charged ten per cent.

4. Entries must specify the exhibitor's name and Post Office address, and entries of stock the name and age of the animal.

5. Exhibitors are required to have their articles entered on the books at the business office before they are assigned a place within the enclosure. Horses and cattle entered the week before the Fair will have the good stalls assigned them.

6. On the entry of articles and animals, exhibitors will be furnished with a card designating the number and class as entered at the office, which is to be placed on the article or animal and kept there during the Fair.

7. All articles and animals are required to be brought upon the grounds the first day of the Fair, and if taken away before the close, without express permission of the officers, will forfeit any premium that may be awarded. The article of butter, however, need not be brought until the second day, and may be taken away on the third.

8. Every precaution will be taken by the Society for the safe preservation of stock and articles on exhibition, after their arrival and arrangement on the grounds, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. The officers desire exhibitors to give close attention to their property, and at the close of the Fair to attend to its removal.

9. Exhibitors must see to the delivery of their articles upon the ground to the Superintendent of the appropriate class.

10. Straw will be provided by the Society for stock, free of charge, grain and hay will be furnished on the grounds at reasonable prices.

III.—INSTRUCTIONS TO COMMITTEES.

1. The Awarding Committees will be called at ten o'clock. Thursday, in front of the executive office, the first on the list present shall be chairman. They will be furnished at the same time with the list of articles to be examined, and they will report their awards to the Secretary on or before ten o'clock, A. M., on Friday.

2. No person who is an exhibitor, can act as Judge, on the class in which he exhibits.

3. No person whatever will be allowed to interfere with the committees during their deliberations.

4. A premium will not be awarded when the article is not worthy, though there be no competition.

5. No article is to be excluded on account of having taken a premium at a previous Fair.

6. No discretionary premiums are to be awarded. Where articles of merit are discovered, for which no premium is offered, the committee shall attach to it a commendatory card, and note the fact in their report, and the Board, will, in its discretion, allow a premium.

7. If the committees have any doubts as to the regularity of the entries, they will apply to the Secretary for information.

8. Stationery will be furnished committees at the office.

9. Committees will report by class, division and number.

IV.—PREMIUMS.

1. The award of premiums will be read from the stands at ten o'clock, on Saturday the last day of the Fair.

2. All premiums will be paid in cash at the time of the announcement of the award.

3. All premiums awarded must be claimed before the annual meeting in October, succeeding the Fair or else they will be considered forfeited to the Society.
